

Executive Order No. 2.
Series of 2020

An order calling the Interfraternity community to socially distance, and limit the spread of COVID-19, by not hosting events with alcohol, reducing programming and service requirements.

WHEREAS, COVID-19 has been identified by the World Health Organization as a pandemic illness;

WHEREAS, the State of Washington has declared a state of emergency, responding to COVID-19;

WHEREAS, Washington State University has moved all classes online;

WHEREAS, the member organizations of the Interfraternity Council greatly value the health and wellbeing of the members of the community;

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control has identified that gathering in large numbers increases the risk of COVID-19 transmission;

NOW THEREFORE, The Interfraternity Council of Washington State University do hereby order;

Section I: Declaration of Policy: There shall be no social events at which alcohol is present, beginning Wednesday, March 11, 2020 until the COVID-19 epidemic has reasonably resolved. Programming and service requirements will be reduced during this time, in a responsible manner that matches the duration of the social suspension.

Section II: Implementation of Policy: This policy shall be put in place and effective immediately. This policy shall be reviewed every other week by the Interfraternity Council and Interfraternity Council Presidents to determine that the COVID-19 epidemic has reasonably resolved, and an appropriate end day and time.

Section III: Organizational Accountability: Violations of this executive order will be referred to the Director of Policy and Procedure for review and potential investigation. Violations of this may result in a Greek Standards Board Hearing.

Section IV: Individual Accountability: As organizations continue to move forward, each group is required to hold its members accountable for the individual behaviors and violations of organizational bylaws.
